

Macau Days

Sunday 8 October, 11:00am - 11:45am

Open State Hub

In this panel renowned artist John Young, acclaimed writer Brian Castro, and award-winning composer/media artist Luke Harrald talk about their collaboration on Macau Days, an exhibition exploring Macau's rich transcultural history as the oldest European settlement in Asia. Young, Castro and Harrald will discuss the stories, ideas and images that inspired their works, such as artists and writers Wenceslau de Moraes (writer/translator, 1854-1929) and Wu Li (poet/priest, 1632-1718), and court artist and Italian Jesuit, Giuseppe Castiglione (1688-1766).
