

Interested in tutoring Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Uni students?

Positions Vacant

The Wirltu Yarlur Tutoring Program is seeking 3rd, 4th and graduated Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students for tutoring/mentoring positions.

Formally known as ITAS, the tutoring program is a service designed to cater for the academic needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Students at the University of Adelaide.

We are seeking Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander tutors to assist 1st and 2nd year students with:

- Planning study workloads
- Understanding assignments and essay questions
 - Effective study skills
 - Research skills
 - Referencing
 - Time management
 - Exam Preparation

Flexible hours and competitive casual hourly pay rates.

Your current or past experience as a student is invaluable. Apply to become a tutor and contribute to the growing educational success of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students.

You've been there before so you can provide the best advice for other students!

For an application pack or more information contact Wirltu Yarlur
wirltu.yarlur@adelaide.edu.au