

The South Australian Chapter of the Australian Association of Constitutional Law, the Research Unit for the Study of Society, Ethics & the Law and the Public Law & Policy Research Unit at the Adelaide Law School

are pleased to present

Professor Mark McMillan, RMIT University

speaking on

Is Federalism Being Undermined in the Current Surge to 'Recognise' Indigenous Australians in (and into) the Commonwealth Constitution?

Chair: Professor Alex Reilly, Adelaide Law School

Professor McMillan is a Wiradjuri man from Trangie, NSW. He is Professor of Law and Deputy Pro Vice Chancellor Indigenous Education and Engagement at RMIT University in Melbourne. Mark was named National NAIDOC Scholar of the year for 2013. His research interests are in the area of human rights and, in particular, the expression and fulfillment of those rights for Indigenous Australians.

Date: Wednesday 26 April 2017

Time: 5.15 for 5.30 pm

Venue: Adelaide Law School, Level 5, Ligertwood Building

RSVP: Eventbrite by Monday 24 April 2017

Attendance at this seminar may be recognised for MCPD purposes.