Welcome to the Elder Conservatorium Percussion Open Day.

There is no charge for students attending or performing at the Open Day, but registration is essential. There are limited places available for performers at masterclasses, but no limit on observers or those wishing to take part in an open rehearsal of Holst's Suite in Eb for Wind Orchestra. Music for this will be sent out after registration. If you would like to perform at a masterclass, we will advise you if you have been selected to play after we have received your registration form.

Please note that students under 15 are the responsibility of a parent/carer at all times.

We look forward to seeing you on the day!
