LAUNCH AND SHOWCASE Friday 12 December 2014

You are invited to attend the official launch and showcase of the University of Adelaide's Public Law & Policy Research Unit (PLPRU).

The launch will showcase the research of members of the Unit, and consider strategies to ensure our research has an impact in the formation of public law and policy. Leading public law scholars from around Australia will reflect on the nature of public law research, and comment on future directions for the PLPRU.

The Public Law & Policy Research Unit contributes an independent scholarly voice on issues of public law and policy vital to Australia's future. It provides expert analysis on government law and policy initiatives and judicial decisions and contributes to public debate through formulating its own law reform proposals.
