

Criteria for the Evaluation of Submissions

Project Title:
Chief Researcher:

Expert Panel use only

Feedback Score
Project meets Research Channel Guiding Principles The proposed project addresses part or all of the research channel. This must include delivery of applicable technology to Australian sport.		/20
Collaboration Project proposal demonstrates the link between the research and National Sport Organisations, with a clear goal towards the application of outputs for sport. Further, evidence of collaboration between research faculties and leaders in various fields, will be viewed favourably.		/10
Competitive Advantage The project will transform practices in the high performance environment by delivering new technology to sport and athletes with focus on competitive advantage that delivers gold medals.		/25
Timeframe The project will produce tangible advantage to Australian athletes in 3-5 years timeframe.		/5
Multi-Sport Project demonstrates development and implementation across multiple sports [1 sport = 1/5, 4+ sports = 5/5]		/5
Project Management Project proposal must include complete project planning information including: clearly defined deliverables, milestones and a team capable of delivering World leading applicable research outcomes. Proposals that include collaborative funding initiatives including scholarships, grants and funding linkages will receive favorable consideration, provided the resources add value and breadth to the research program.		/15
Capability Development The project will deliver broad capability enhancement to the Australian Sport Network including products, services and people who can generate future Australian success.		/20
TOTAL		/100

